

Invitation

Transformed and Transformative Ocean Governance Conference

The aim of this conference is to provide a forum for a wide range of ocean experts and stakeholders to engage with the latest developments impacting on ocean governance from developmental, ecosystem-based and human-rights-based approaches, before starting to reflect and give direction on what transformed and transformative ocean governance means and requires. Confirmed speakers include Professor Peter Jones (University College London), Professor Christina Hicks (Lancaster University), Professor Elisa Morgera (University of Strathclyde), Dr Wesley Flannery (Queen's University Belfast), Dr Kimberley Peters (University of Liverpool), Dr Paul Holthus (World Ocean Council), Dr Daniela Diz Pereira Pinto (University of Strathclyde), Professor Phil Levin (University of Washington) and Professor Kevern Cochrane (Rhodes University).
